8. ☒ Examiner's Statement of Reasons for Allowance

9. ☐ Other _____.

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of the record fails to disclose if the sequence number is out of order, determining the distance between the out of order sequence number and the sequence number of the last data packet that was received in sequence; using the distance to discard or keep the received data packet based on a predetermined amount of threshold level of distance, the threshold level of distance being a function of the finite amount of memory space of the data transmission device in combination of other limitation recited in claim 1; a re-sequencing engine of the system measuring the distance between the sequence number associated with the out of sequence data packet and the sequence number of the last packet that was received in sequence; and the re-sequencing engine discarding or re-sequencing the received data packet based on a predetermined threshold level of distance, the threshold level of distance being a function of the amount of memory in the system that is available for re-sequencing data packets in combination of other limitation recited in claim 10; logic instructions for causing the processor to measure the distance between the sequence number associated with the out of sequence data packet received by the egress side and the sequence number of the last packet that was received in sequence; wherein the re-sequencing engine is further adapted to discard or re-sequence the received data packet based on a predetermined threshold level of distance, the threshold level of distance being a function of the amount of memory in the system that is available for re-sequencing data packets in combination of other limitation recited in claim 15.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
